EAST ASIAN RELIGION, THOUGHT AND CULTURE

Bachelor of Arts

Berkeley
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

INTRODUCTION TO THE MAJOR

The East Asian Religion, Thought and Culture (EALC) major trains students in the philosophical and religious traditions that help shape and inform the many aspects of East Asia's diverse cultures. The major trains students in a way that is grounded in a familiarity with the texts, languages, and cultures of East Asian societies, while also examining how these traditions have been (and might better be) brought into humanistic disciplines.

UC Berkeley is a world-renowned center for the study of East Asian Humanities. Whether you want to master Chinese or Japanese, immerse yourself in the literary and cultural traditions of East Asia, absorb the profound insights of its philosophical and poetic texts, or come to a deeper understanding of the modern and contemporary histories and media cultures of this complex and vital region, EALC has something for you.

“ EALC not only nurtures me into a young scholar but also a more complete person. ”

– Yisheng Tang, EALC student

ADDITIONAL OPTIONS

- If you are interested in language or culture and want to complement your studies of religion and philosophy, ask about our minors in Buddhist Studies, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Tibetan.
- If you are interested in the philosophy and religion of a specific culture, discuss a plan of study with your major advisor to create a focus through your upper division coursework.

AMPLIFY YOUR MAJOR

- Visit the Institute of East Asian Studies, the C.V. Starr East Asian Library, and other Friends+Partners of EALC.
- Publish your work in the Berkeley Student Journal of Asian Studies.
